

Co-op Bylaws ready for review

The bylaws of an organization define the essential rules, structure and purposes of the group. We have the first draft of the Brownsville Co-op bylaws available at:

<http://www.brownsvillecoop.com/coop/papers/brownsville%20coop%20bylaws.pdf>

or

<http://www.brownsvillecoop.com/coop/papers/brownsville%20coop%20bylaws.doc>

The review process will go on till February 22nd. Please send your comments to sbrenner@archetype.org before that date.

Our proposed timeline is the following:

Ballots for voting on bylaws sent by mail - Mar 1
Deadline for getting ballots back - Mar 15
Notice of election for Board of Directors - Apr 1
Election for Board of Directors - June 1
New Board starts - July 2

Please note that you will need to be a Co-op supporting member to vote for the bylaws or for the Board of Directors. There is a one-time supporting membership fee of $25. You can send a check made out to "Brownsville Co-op" to:

Brownsville Co-op
c/o Stephen Brenner
PO Box 367
Brownsville, OR 97327

Ten Rivers Food Web Salon in March?

Most of us missed the Sweet Home Food Web meeting, so we hope to have our own Food Web Salon sometime in March. We'll keep you posted when that is finalized. In the meantime you can check out their website at:

http://www.tenriversfoodweb.org/about_html

Next Azure Standard Order Deadline - February 14

Details for ordering can be found at brownsvillecoop.com/buyers
Deadline for theGoods orders is February 21st.

Next Co-op General Meeting - February 19

At the Bramble House Restaurant - 205 Templeton - 7:30 pm